THE LIQUOR LAW, GROCER AND HUCKSTER EX CITEMENT .- The City Councils have fallen upon the various businesses of selling liquor, buying and reselling marketing, and restricting the trade in such matters in a manner which has created much excitement. At present a law exists providing against selling liquor on the Sabbath, and also prohibiting under penalties, the sale of any other article on Sun-The new law repeals the Sunday law in regard to selling liquors, so far as selling by the small is concerned, yet still applies to those selling by the pint. That is, there being no license to sell by the small at all, and the act passed repealing "all acts inconsistent therewith " The Sunday law, so far as liquer selling is concerned, comes under the general prohibition of the anti-tippling house bill. The effect of these bills being such, forbidding all hotels, tav. rns, restaurants, shops, &c., from carrying on their businesses, it is no wonder that much excit ment consequently exists. To break up a citizen's business, on the brief notice of less than three weeks, is calculated to make the people doubt the sanity of our city law makers. These traders have laid in their stocks, incurred debts and responsibilities in their line, just like other business people; and now the means of paying those debts and meet ing those responsibilities are suddenly snatched away from them. The liquor dealers, high and low, are indignant of course under such circumstances. The hucksters are of the same feeling as to the meddling with their operations, but as their trade is not entirely prohibited, they have less reason than the tavern keepers for indignation, while the grocers have mainly to complain, with them, that their taxes are increased and their occupations restricted by the new laws. Altogether, our City Fathers have created a commotion in our midst that will be diffi cult to allay, and it is thought by shrewd observers that they had better restrain their steps in some particulars. Let them look to it.

To PRESERVE A BOQUET .- A florist, of many years experience, gives the following recipe for preserving boquets for an unusual period, which may be useful to our lady readers : First, get the boquet which is not very easy to do just now, but when you get it, sprink e it lightly with fresh water. Tuendan it into a vessel containing soap-suds, which will mutify the roots, and keep the llowers as bright as new. Take the boquet out of the suds every morning, and lay it sideways, the stalks entering first, in water. Keep it there a minute or two, then take it out, and sprinkle the flowers lightly by the hand with water. Replace it in the soap-sads, and it will bloom as fresh as when first gathered. The soapsuds need changing every three or four days. By observing these rules, a boquet can be kept bright and beautiful for at least a month, and will last longer, in a very passable appearance; but the attention to the fair, but frail creatures, as directed above, must be strictly observed, or the last rose of summer will not be left faded alone, but all will

BALL OF THE AMERICUS .- Last evening. Temperance Hall was sober and merry with the delightful quadrille, waltz, schottische, &c., of the guests and members of the gallant Americus Club. The 100m was handsomely decorated, the beautiful banner presented by the ladies waving conspicuously, and the truthful words appearing as a motto-"We strive to please." This the Club did most agreeably. The brother Clubs represented were the Arlington, the Amicus, the Island Social Club, the Mount Ver non, the Empire, and the Osceola from Baltimore. Mr. Thos. Johnson, of the latter association, danced the Highland fling with fine effect. Among the ladies the elegant Miss M. J. C., dressed in black, attracted much attention; the pretty dimpled little Miss E. W., in pure white and rosy cheeks, was charming; Miss A. A. in white bodice with dark Miss L. D. in fawn colored silk, Miss G. in white, the lady in tartan plaid, the Alexandria heauty in blue, and-but stop. They were all most lovely The music, the ice cream, &c., were well provided, and "the man with the overcoat and the summer breeches," says that the whole affair passed off

MAGNANIMITY OF YANKEE DOODLE .- A true American is always magnanimous, and Yankee Doodle is the truth itself. We have received the following important dispatch, publish it to show the magnanimity and philosophical spirit of the great champion of Truth, and accept his for with the conditions he proposes. We shall say no more about the paste-pot, the work-house, the unjust fines, the nuisance, &c., &c., but regard Mr. R. as we do the rest of mankind :

"Enemies in war-in peace, friends." [For the Evening Star.]

WASHINGTON, October 17, 1854. Sirs: I have this day with my own free will withdrawn the intended Suit against you, and those under your control at your office. And I hereby freely forgive you all for the past, on Conditions I am not molested any more in or out of your paper So that I may be able to attend to my own business as I have ever tried to do in Washington, and wherever have dwelt since I arrived to the years of Accountability, to God and man, and my much beloved Country. I ask for nothing but what is Just and equitable, and within the limits of the Constitution of The United States. All of which I am perfectly willing to See, every American Citizen enjoy here and elsewhere, without let or hinderance from any Respectfully,
JAMES ROBERTSON,
JAMES ROBERTSON, Editor of The Truth at Washington, D. C.

ANOTHER DRILL OF THE OFFICERS .- Last evening the staff and company officers met, in increased numbers, at Military Hall, for the purpose of exercise. Col. Hickey drilled them in what may be called the second lesson, and fully exhibited the fact that a continuance will certainly do much good for | ing and riveting metal-c plates," which he owns. the military efficiency of our gallant officers. It w s pleasing to observe the spirit with which each and devotion of Col. Hickey to the subject. He .xplained in clear terms the duties of the soldier, and Davis is the only candidate. they obeyed his orders with promptness and alacrity. Among other facts, the offic rs were reminded that an app opriation had been made for an armory by Cong.ess; that the Secretary of War was highly favorable to the movement; and that it only needed certain conditions on the part of our military to have the grand object accomplished. These drills will thus lead to the most important results.

AWYULLY "SOLD!"-The city is full of a story. saying that a very zealous politician, famous, how ever, for always getting the best of a business arrangement or bargain, in his eagerness to secure the Washington Councils to his own notion, deeded a lot worth about sixteen hundred dollars to a candidate for the lower board, in order to make him eligible for election. A sharp lawyer, however, happened to hold unsatisfied judgments against the candidate sufficient to cover the value of the lot, on which he levied before the record of the political transfer on the books of the county of Washington, D. C., was dry. The politician of course loses his property thus deeded, but derives consolation, we stranger in this city, and in consequence of his destitute contrast, from the election of his favorice. So much for dition was sent to the Hospital, where he was found by a investing in posities.

MILITARY MOVEMENTS-PARADE TO-MORROW .-Never before has there been such preparations to honor the anniversary of the battle of Yorktown as has been made for the grand parade to-morrow. Every company of the city, it is expected, will be out, and the display be one of unusual grandeur. The staff and company officers have been particularly preparing themselves for the interesting occasion, and connected with it, the soldiery should remember, is the patriotic purpose of contributing to the National Washington Monument. The review by the President of the United States is to be a marked feature in the parade, the battalion appearing in "Battle's magnificently stern array."

TRIUMPHAL PROCESSION .- Such was the grand entre into Washington, this morning, of the magnificent car of Mesers. Spalding & Rogers' circuses, drawn by forty spirited horses, and driven by one man-Mr. W. J. Paul, we understood his name to be. Thousands of people lined the foot-walks to view the extraordinary display, while ladies and others made the windows of the Avenue lively while gazing at the grand scene. Kendall's celebrated original brass band played some fine airs as they passed along, and after compassing the attention of the whole city, they relired, like Arabs, to their

POLICE.—There is a perfect stagnation of busines among our Police Justices at the present time. If this state of affairs continues, we shall soon have to record the closing of several of their offices. We have made our customary visits, both yesterday and this morning, to each of them, and not a single case of any account was presented to us for publication. This may be termed "hard times" for the Squires, but we know them all as being true patriots, and that the loss sustained by them in pocket, is of no consideration compared with the happiness and good order of our people. THE BREAD LAW .- We have every reason to believe that the Washington Councils will promptly pass an ordinance supplemental to the bread law, in which they will declare that it was not their intention to make over weight a cause of forfeiture Those of them with whom we conversed on the subject insist that the Corporation attorney's interpretation of their act, was, in this respect, wholly foreign to what they intended it should be. SUDDEN DEATH .- Yesterday morning, Tabby Wilkins, a colored woman, residing in the north eastern section of the city, fell from a chair on whiel she was seated, and suddenly expired. She war said to be one hundred and ten years old; and, it is supposed, died from old age, as she was in her usual good health at the time of her decease.

AMERICAN RIFLEMEN'S BALL.-We have hereto fore called attention to this first fete of a new company, but as this grand affair takes place to morrow night, we may be excused for again noticing it. The gallant head of the company, Capt. Smith, assures us that the committee of arrangements have surpassed all he ever witnessed on such occasions, for its complete success. A Baltimore company is expected to be present, besides other military, as well as civic and fair attractions—Prosperi's band being none of the least. Remember Carusi's Sal on to

THE CIRCUS OPENING TO NIGHT .- The grand tent having been pitched in the rear of t'e Centre Market, will be opened this evening with a rich variety of extraordinary performances. Such a combination of equestrian and other talent never before assembled in the District. Doubtless the canvass will he as triumphant to-night as was the car and forty horses this morning. See advertisement.

JAIL BREAKING AGAIN .- Stephen F. Lucas, who recently broke jail and was caught at Alaxandria, has recently been trying his hand again; but having been detected in this second attempt, finds his liberty a little more circbmscribe 1 than it would have been had he respected the kindness of the Marshal BURGLARIOUS .- Late last night the young man who occupies Mr. J. A. Ruff's shoe store on the Avenue, to watch the place at night, heard some burglar trying to get in the back way. Slipping out the front door he rallied the passers-by, sent for the guard, and surrounded the house, but after the closest search they failed in finding the rogue. We had a hand in the search ourself, but the effort was boot less owing to the creaking of "Pete's" shoes.

THE AMERICAN RIFLEMEN .- This fine new corps will be an attractive object in the line to-morrow. and the only one of the recently raised companies that have been able to "make ready" for the parade. The Union Guards, the Highlanders, and others, will not be prepared for some time, owing to not receiving their uniforms, muskets, &c.

THE UNION GUARDS .- This new corps meet at their armory on Friday evening, as we learn from their efficient Secretary, Mr. R. O. Polkinhorn, and will still keep up their efforts at accomplishing a speedy organization. It is so far formed of a fine body of young men.

TAVERN-KEEPERS MEETING .- The meeting las night, we learn, was one of much interest, and was Firm, united they will stand Rallying round the favorite brand—&c.

PRESENTATION.—To morrow, a beautiful flag is to be presented by Mrs. Pendleton to the youthful Scott Guards The scene will be one of interest, after which these gallant javeniles will join in the grand parade of the day.

WATCH RETURNS .- The gentlemanly Captain informed us this morning, that there was a great de crease of crime in this city compared with that of last month within the same period It is gratifying to record intelligence of such a character, exhibiting, as it does, a wholesome state of our community. and the efficiency of our police. The following unimportant cases were all that were recorded since Sunday: George Sauner, drunk; fine and costs. Elizabeth Snmby, colored, drunk and disorderly workhouse 30 days. Dennis McCarty, profanity; find and costs. Gustavus Warring, drunk; fine and

ALEXANDRIA CORRESPONDENCE.

Railroad Meeting-Election-Resignation Duel - Burglary-Noisy Night-Beschke's Card, &c. ALEXANDRIA, Oct. 17, 1854.

This morning, the Alexandria, Loudon and Hamshire Railroad Company assembled at their office, but, in default of a quorum, adjourned to meet on Friday, 20th instant.

The election for Clerk of the Circuit Court termi nated in the choice of Mr. R. A. Sinclair, Democrat, almost without opposition. Mr. H. O. Claughton desires us to state that the use of his name in connection with this office was entirely unauthorized. An old and highly esteemed merchant of our city, Mr. J. T. B. Perry, of the firm of Perry, Miller & Co., was, yesterday, struck with paralysis. The services of our most eminent physicians were called into requisition, and we learn his condition has materially improved. Our friends of the Baptist Church have lost the

Rev. H. H. Tucker, whose failing health compels him to resign the ministerial charge of the congregation in this city. In the early portion of the week, our citizens in the northern part of the city were alarmed by the report that a duel had been fought in their vicinity and one of the parties fallen a victim to the code of honor. Upon inquiry, however, it was ascertained that nothing worse than curses had resulted from the very harmless rencontre which took place. The store of Brewis & Co., od Cameron street, near the market, was entered by thieves on Sunday night, and robbed of $25 in silver. The lock on the cellar door, in the back yard, was found broken, and it is supposed entrance was effected in that way. Saturday night was very noisy, especially among our Irish population. The watchmen were ke busy all night, and on Sunday morning introduced four customers to his honor, who disposed of them as the law directs.

Mr. Wm. Beschke is out in this morning's Sentinel, in a two column and a half card to the American public on the Arctic's disaster, in which he is down upon Mr. Collins, the Baltimore Sun, and Washington Evening Star. According to him the accident could have been entirely prevented, by using patent, No. 10,247, "for improvements in join-On next Mon ay, the polls will be opened in the First Ward. for a special election, to fill a vacancy all entered into the matter, and the earnestness and in the lower Board of our City Council, oceasioned by the resignation of Mr. W. > BROWN'S ESSENCE OF JAMAICA GINGER.—This Essence is warranted to possess, in a concentrated form, all the val-nable properties of Jamaica Ginger, and will be found on trial an excellent family medicine. It is particularly recom-mended as a tonic to persons recovering from fever or other diseases, a few drops imparting to the stomach a glow and wigor equal to a wine-glassful of brandy or other stimulant without any of the debilifating effects which are sure to follow the use of liquor of any kind; and it is therefore especially serviceable to children and females. To the aged it will prove a great comfort, to the dyspeptic, and to those who are predisposed to gout or rheumatic affections it gives great relief; and to the inebriate who wishes to reform, but whose stomach is constantly craying the product of t se stomach is constantly craving the noxious liquor, it is invaluable-giving tone to the digestive organs, and strength to resist temptation and is consequently a great agent in the cause of temperance. 63" ODD FELLOWS' CERTIFICATE. - No STRONGER THE TIMONY NEED BE ASKED. WASHINGTON LODGE, No. 2, I. O. O. F.,

Mr. B. Burrow-Dear Sir-In compliance with your request we inform you for the benefit of the public, that a brother of our Order, John R. Jasper, became sick while committee of this Lodge, suffering from a disease termed Scrofula or King's Evil, and in so low a state as to be pronounced by the physicians incurable. On recommendation of a brother he was induced to try your medicine, and in three weeks was declared cured and left the city for New York; and in our opinion his restoration to health was caused solely by the use of your specific.

Given under our hands and seal of our Lodge the date bove written. JAS. H. BAMSON, N. G.

A MIGHTY TRIUMPH IN MEDICINE. MASONIC CERTIFICATE.

NOBFOLK, Sept. 6, 1865. Dear Sir—In compliance with your request, we, the un-dersigned, cheerfully state that in the fall of 1844 our atten-tion was directed to the deplorable condition of a stranger named John R. Jasper, who had been treated for Screen without effecting a cure, and at the suggestion of a friend with some others of the Masonic Fraternity, of which Mr. Jasper was a member, directed you to administer your Elix-is VITE, and that after he had taken it some weeks he was declared cured, and left Norfolk apparently a well man.

Respectfully, &c. Simon Stone, F. F. Ferguson, Philip I. Cohen, Wm. D. Serl.

For Humors, Inflammations, Yenereal and Murcurial Diseases, Scrofula, Coughs, Colds, Fevers and Consumption in its first stage, it is the only infallible specific. The genuine is for sale in Washington by C. STOTT & CO., Pennsylvania avenue and 7th street, and all dealers in med-icine throughout the District of Columbia.

It should be universally known—for it is strictly true—that indigestion is the parent of a large proportion of the fatal diseases. Dysentery, diarrhea, cholera morbus, liven, complaint, and many other diseases enumerated in the city inspector's weekly catalogue of deaths, are generated by indigestion alone. Think of that, dyspeptics; think of it all who suffer from disordered stomachs, and if you are willing to be guided by advice, founded upon experience, resort at once—don't delay a day—to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, which, as an alterative, curative, and invigorant, stands alone and unapproached. We have tried the Bitters; and know that they are excellent for the diseases specified above. For sale dealers in medicine everywhere.

There is a portrait executed, in this last style, of President Pierce, that reflects great credit on the artist, every lineament thereof giving a life like expression. Mr. Plumbe is reckoned among the first Daguerrean artists.
